Re: In re PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company
Case No. 3:19-cv-05257-JD (N.D. Cal.)

Your Honor:

Certain Fire Victims who objected to the Debtors' estimation motion have reviewed the most recent statement from them this afternoon and what was filed was not "evidence" as Your Honor ordered at the May 19th hearing, but merely a recital of what the Debtors and TCC collectively looked at when they engaged in settlement discussions. However, the evidence is identified in the statement filed today, and that is what should have been placed in the record to support Your Honor's estimation number.

We shall respond tomorrow with a more formal objection to the Debtors' attempt to convince the Court to change Your Honor's ruling on May 19th about simply stating that the number for the unliquidated fire victim estimated damages amount to be paid by the Debtors is $13.5 billion.

Respectfully yours,

Richard A. Lapping
And, with permission,
Francis O. Scarpulla
Jeremiah F. Hallisey
